Plugged to Divert Religare and Fortis

Value loss that far exceeded the amount diverted

Sunil Godhwani

LEGAL BATTLE

Malvinder and Godhwani have been directed to file their replies to the suit within two weeks, following which Shivinder will get two weeks to file a response. NCLT will hear this case next on Oct 9

In his behalf, caused Religare Finvest to create a fixed deposit of about ₹750 crore with Laxmi Vilas Bank on November 19, 2016, against which RHC and its subsidiary Ramchem Pvt were granted a loan of about ₹750 crore, it was alleged in the petition. "This eroded Religare Finvest Limited capital base and the loan availed by RHC against the fixed deposit remains outstanding till date," Shivinder Singh said. He also claimed that Malvinder Singh, as executive chairman of Fortis Healthcare and Religare, made Fortis Healthcare extend ₹473 crore in inter-corporate deposits to RHC, which was used preferentially to pay the company's creditors. "These loans have put the company in a precarious position. Because of this leveraging, there has been a burdening on subsidiaries (like Fortis and Religare), which has forced them to de-subsidiarise them," said a person directly aware of the developments, on condition of anonymity.

The acts jeopardised attempts to sell stakes in Religare and Fortis, Shivinder Singh argued, because the delay in strategic transactions contributed to secured lenders of RHC losing patience and selling or dumping pledged Religare shares.
