New Delhi: India has called for dismantling new trade barriers like vaccine differentiations or Covid passports, which impose mobility restrictions and impede the movement of personnel needed to deliver critical services. Pitching for free flow of health services to make them accessible and more affordable at the G-20 Trade and Investment Ministerial Meeting in Italy, commerce and industry minister Piyush Goyal pushed for a waiver of intellectual property rights (IPR) to ease supply constraints.

"Our response to the pandemic needs to ensure equitable access to vaccines and other Covid-19 related health products by ensuring quick resolution of the supply side constraints," he said, adding that one of the ways to demonstrate this is by accepting the Trade-Related aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (Trips) waiver proposal.

The proposal, jointly floated by India and South Africa a year ago, seeks a waiver for all members of the World Trade Organization from Mumbai: Lease deals for large office space are being registered in key property markets as a rising number of corporates plan to welcome employees back to offices amid steady economic recovery and an aggressive vaccine drive across the country.

Global organisations such as Google, Intel Technology, ABB, WeWork and Infos Software Technologies and domestic corporations like Samsung India Electronics and Future Technology School Foundation have picked up large office space in the past few months.

Companies have concluded and registered over 15 leases for offices spread across more than 100,000 sq ft each totalling 3 million sq ft in the last four months, show-
